

1	The confidence level is very high and we can have detailed estimate for the cost of the project. Such Document is called _____
2	Data from another situations that is very similar but not identical to the circumstances at hand is called _____
3	Technique to estimate cost and schedule at the lowest unit of work level of the WBS and then does a roll up of these numbers in order to calculate the totals for the project is _____
4	_____ is a control point event in the project usually the completion of a key deliverable that triggers a reporting requirement or that requires a sponsor or customer approval.
5	Triple constraints of project management are restrictions that must be balanced to achieve project success. These are Time, _____ and _____.
6	The project document that authorizes or sanctions a project is called _____.
7	The first thing we find out from the problem statement for making an ER diagram is _____
8	An open rectangle from one side in the DFD represents a _____
9	When we combine all the modules and test it then it is called _____ testing.